Academic Year: 2019-2020

Red Ribbon Club:

The red ribbon is a symbol for both drug prevention and for the fight against AIDS. The Red Ribbon foundation is an organization founded in 1993 whose main purpose is the education about prevention of the Human Immunodeficiency Virus or HIV, Acquired Deficiency Syndrome Related Complex, ARC and AIDS. Red Ribbon is the international symbol of HIV and AIDS awareness. It is being worn by increasing number of people around the world to demonstrate their care and concern about HIV and AIDS -for those who are living with HIV, for those who are ill, for those who have died and for those who care for and support those directly affected.

The Red Ribbon offers a symbol of hope and support for those living with HIV, for the continuing education of those not infected, for maximum efforts to find effective treatments, cures or vaccines and for those who have lost friends, family members or loved ones to AIDS. But the Red Ribbons are not enough. The Red Ribbon is only a useful symbol in the long run, when attached to words and deeds that actually make a difference. To perform these duties towards society Rjspm's ACS College established Red Ribbon Club on 12th, August, 2019. The event took place in the presence of Principal Dr. G.L. Bhong Sir, all the faculties in the college and RRC Volunteers of the college. The red Ribbon club established with the following objectives:

- 1) To prepare youth as peer educators/agents of change both among youth as well as society at large by developing their skills on leadership, advocacy, communication and team building.
- 2) To increase awareness among youth on sexual reproductive health and HIV/AIDS.
- 3) To impart skills among youth on self-protection, negotiation, and effective group interaction.
- 4) Promote Regular voluntary blood donation by young people and increase access to safe and adequate quantities of blood.
- 5) Conducting AIDS awareness programs.

Thus, RJSPM'S ACS College students have actively participated in different activity such as they prepare and promote youth to be educators within and outside the campus and engage themselves in distributing pamphlets regarding AIDS and the way of living. The Coordinator of this activity were Asst. Prof. Deepak Pawade Asst. Prof Savita Veer. This activity was conducted on 12th August, 2019, at 09.00 am to 01.30 pm in the College.

Flood relief activities organizations:

In August 2019, the Kolhapur and Sangli districts of southern Maharashtra were hit by unprecedented floods following heavy rains in Konkan and the western parts of Maharashtra. This natural calamity destroyed infrastructure including houses, roads, and bridges and caused the death of more than 50 people and many domestic animals and cattle. The economy of these districts is mainly based on agriculture, which was severely damaged from this flood. Rajmata Jijau Shikshan Prasark Mandal's ACS College organized rally on 29th August 2019 to collect money, cloths, food grains, groceries, medicines and other necessary things to the people of flood affected area. Teachers and administrative staff donated 25000 rupees to support flood affected area people. Honorable Ex. MLA and president of RJSPM'S ACS College Mr. Vilas Lande sir, principal G.L.Bhong sir, all teachers and student were present for it. The Coordinator of this activity were Asst. Prof. Deepak Pawade and Asst. Prof Savita Veer. This activity was conducted on 29th August 2019.

Half Day Workshop on Indian Constitution:

On 26 November, 1949 we adopted the constitution which was signed by 284 members. The day is celebrated as National Law Day or Constitution Day. The day was chosen to spread the importance of the constitution and to spread thoughts and ideas of Dr. Ambedkar. Despite being one of the most important documents in India, only few Indian citizens completely understand the Constitution and what it entails most of them just know the name and nothing else. The Rajmata Jijau Shikshan Prasark Mandal's ACS College with Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension SPPU took initiative to spread awareness about the constitution and its importance in everyone's life by organizing Half Day Workshop on Indian Constitution on 6th December, 2019. The event started with Principal Dr. G.L. Bhong sir introductory speech. He said that constitution of India taught us freedom, equality, brotherhood, justice that's why we are living together irrespective of cast, creed, religion region, culture and language. Principal Pradip Kadam was the speaker in the first half of the workshop. In his speech, he focused on the origin of Constitution and its significance at present time. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar studied sixty nations constitution to prepare our constitution. Two years, eleven month and eighteen days were taken to draft your constitution. By giving this example he emphasized that today's youth should get inspiration and motivation from him and everyone should read at least one page per day of our constitution. His pauses, pitch variation and theatrical gestures brought alive the debates around citizenship, secularism, women's reservation, minority rights and hero worship, persuading the audience to reflect on the origins of our constitutional values.

In the second half of the workshop, professor Chakradhar Tilekar focused on national unity and the role of today's youth in India. The Coordinator of this activity was Asst. Prof. Sudam Godge Sir. This activity was conducted on 6th December, 2019, at 09.00 am to 01.30 pm in the College. All the faculties of Rjspm's ACS College and 160 students were participated in this workshop.

Participation of Students in Pulse Polio Immunization program:

With the global initiative of eradication of polio in 1988 following World Health Assembly resolution in 1988, Pulse Polio Immunization program was launched in India in 1995. Children in the age group of 0-5 years administered polio drops during National and Sub-national immunization rounds (in high risk areas) every year. About 172 million children are immunized during each National Immunization Day (NID).

Objective:

The Pulse Polio Initiative was started with an objective of achieving hundred per cent coverage under Oral Polio Vaccine. It aimed to immunize children through improved social mobilization, plan mop-up operations in areas where poliovirus has almost disappeared and maintain high level of morale among the public. To fulfill this objective RJSPM'S ACS College Students actively participated on 19th January 2019, at corporation hospital Bhosari, PMC in this mission. This activity was performed under the coordination of Asst. Prof. Deepak Pawade Sir and Asst. Prof. Savita Veer Madam.

Environmental awareness Program:

Environmental awareness is to understand the fragility of our environment and the importance of its protection. Promoting environmental awareness is an easy way to become an environmental steward and participate in creating a brighter future for our children. To define environmental awareness we must first understand the environmentalist movement. Environmentalism is an ideology that evokes the necessity and responsibility of humans to respect, protect, and preserve the natural world from its anthropogenic (caused by humans) afflictions.

Dr. Avinash shelare (Garware College) was the guest speaker in this program. He focused on human created disasters of environmental, depletion of ozone layer and its importance, changes in atmosphere. He also said that if human beings do not stop destruction of environment. To protect the Earth we need to change our nature and plant more trees to save Earth to save lives. Dr. G. L. Bhong also said that it is very importance of Environment Awareness especially in the today's youth. That's why such lectures and seminars would be best way to spread the environmental awareness. The Coordinator of this activity was Asst. Prof. Reshma Lohakare. This activity was conducted on 28th January, 2020, at 10.00 am to 12.00 pm in the College. The students of B.A., B.Com, B.B.A., B.C.A. B.ScS were present.

Sinhgad Fort Cleanliness Drive:

The Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU) has hit the state's historical and cultural tourist map, with a mop and a broom, in a manner of speaking. Various historical monuments, forts and other important structures in Pune, Nashik and Ahmednagar district will be deep cleansed, all in keeping with permissions from the necessary heritage departments and archaeological authorities. The initiative started by the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of the SPPU, comes from the varsity working on a policy to "adopt" such historical monuments and forts. "The forts and other historical monuments are our legacy and we should conserve it. With directive principles of SPPU, RJSPM'S ACS College NSS department organized Sinhgad fort cleanliness drive in the month of February. The forts should be clean and the basic amenities should be available there. The clean premises will give a good message to tourists. Thirty students were participated in it. The coordinators of this activity were Asst. Prof. Deepak Pawade and Asst. Prof. Savita Veer with support of Asst. Prof. Kamlesh Jagtap and Asst. Prof. Reshma Lohakare.

Women's Day Celebration:

International Women's Day is celebrated in the world every year on the 8th March. It celebrates womanhood and pays tribute to the indomitable spirit of women across the globe. Its root lies in the early 1900s when oppression and inequality was spurring women to become more vocal and active in campaigning for change. Its main goal is to create awareness of gender equality for a healthy society and also the target to give basic information for a girl child. Awareness about all these things in the society will further result in overall development of nation and its community. 8th March, considered as International Women's Day. This day brings many things for women a cause for celebration, a reason to pause and re-evaluate an inspiration and a time to honor, loved and admired. To honor womanhood, Rjspm's ACS College celebrated the International Women's Day on Tuesday, 9th March, 2020. The event took place in the presence of sub inspector of police Mrs. Pooja Kadam. She spoke on the topic of 'Women Empowerment and Self-defense. She graced the occasion by addressing students that they should create an opportunity to establish their own self successful in the society as an equal human being. She also spoke on the present attacks and crimes against women. You need to be careful and physically as well as mentally strong enough to face the world. The Coordinator of this activity was Asst. Prof. Deepak Pawade. This activity was conducted on 9th March, 2020, at 09.300 am to 12.30 pm in the College.
