Soft Skills

Soft Skills Development

Goal: To develop and improve “Professional English Communicative Proficiency”

Objectives:

1. To introduce students to various forms of communication skills in the context of contemporary living.
2. To help them become proficient language users.
3. To ingrain in them the value and significance of communication for personality development and future professional chances.
4. To increase their work prospects in chosen field of professions.

Introduction:

The goal of the soft skills lectures is to introduce students to the fundamentals of communication while assisting them in developing effective communication skills across a variety of media. Basic concepts may be clarified using "teacher talk." However, bearing in mind the lecture's primarily practical focus, instructors should include the students in a variety of tasks, activities, projects, and assignments, and provide them with advice on how to complete them successfully. Keeping in mind we arranged few lectures and interactive workshop sessions for students and availed them to grasp better proficiency.

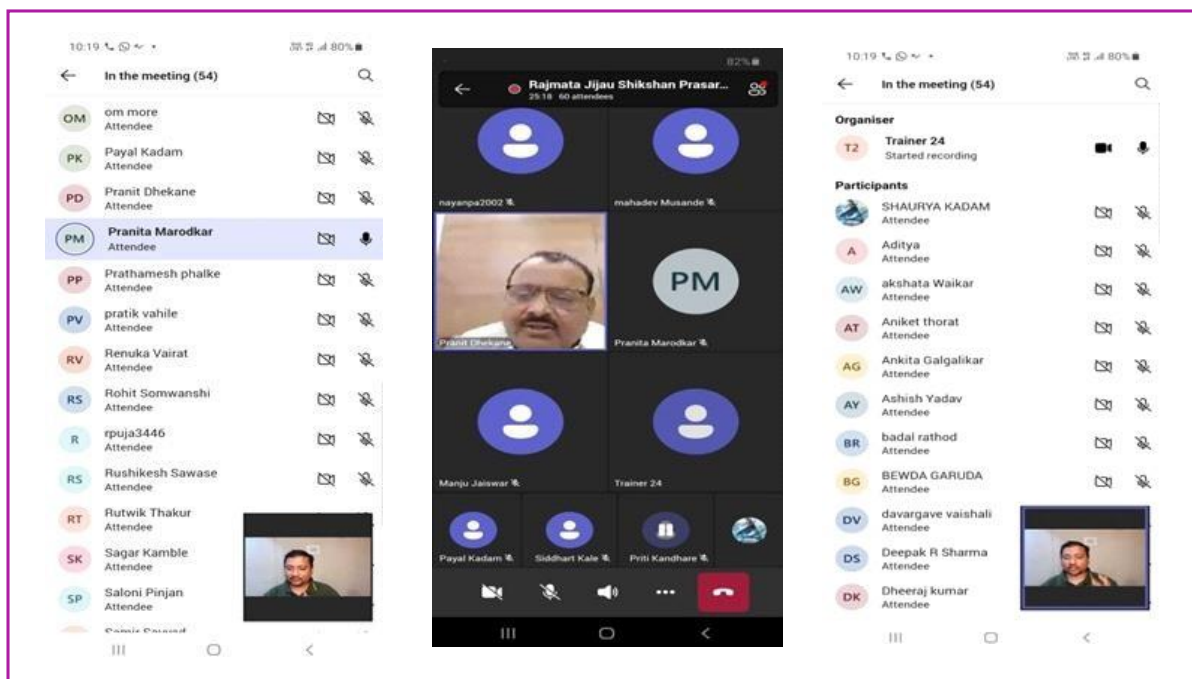

1. Soft Skill and Interview Techniques

Department of BBA (CA) has arranged the two days workshop on “Soft Skill and Interview Techniques” by Mr. Somiron Mitra (Trainer) GTT PVT.LTD on 29/12/2021 & 30/12/2021. Around 54 students attended this workshop. He discussed about importance of soft skills. Also he summarized soft skills as life skills that impact the way you lead your personal and professional life, do your day-to-day work, interact with others, solve problems, etc. This broad category includes interpersonal skills, communication and listening skills, emotional intelligence, time manage empathy, etc. Mr. Mitra discussed the benefits of soft skill in industry as follows:

- Increased productivity
- Stronger teamwork
- More effective leaders
- Improved retention of top talent
- Reduced turnover
- Improved employee morale
- Stronger, more effective interdepartmental communication
- Improved consistency in output, productivity

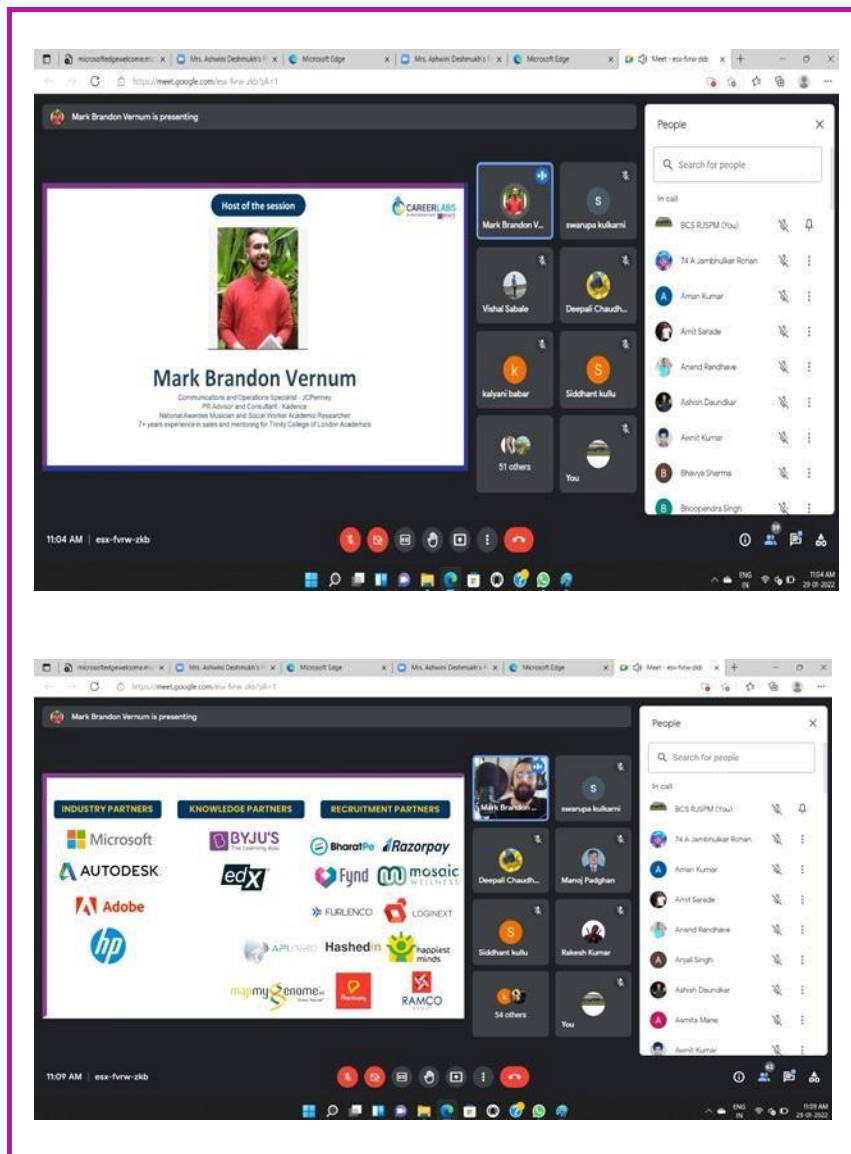

Through soft skills training programs, students will be able to better handle interpersonal relationships with a strong sense of empathy. They will also be in a favourable position to monitor the emotions of others so as to come up with well-informed perceptions about others' behaviour and thinking patterns.

This workshop was really helpful for BBA (CA) students in context with their career point of view.

2. Soft Skill Development

Soft skills are character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize a person's relationship among the society. Soft skills include attributes and personality traits that help employees interact with others and succeed in the workplace. Interview skill is the key to enter in any industry. In the same context, a guest lecture was organized by Computer Science department on 29th Jan 2022 through online platform Google meet. The purpose of the lecture is to how to develop the soft skill, what the different career opportunities in IT profession are and what strategies can be applied to achieve the same. Mr. Mark Brandon Venum from Career Lab has excellently delivered the attributes of soft skills and its utilization during interviews. The presentation and interaction of the speaker was very effective, wherein he showed many related visuals about communicating effectively, development of leadership and problem solving skills. The lecturer shared his experience in the area of communication skill and inspired the student to crack the software industry interview.

3. National Webinar on IT Bootcamp-Roadmap Your Future

A webinar was organized on 19th March 2022 regarding skill development for enhancing the employability of students. The speaker Dr. Nagappa B. gave a brief account on ideal resume preparation according to job profile and also gave knowledge about cracking interview. Nearly 100 students attended this session.

Language and Communication Skills

Communication Skills Development

Goal: To enhance effective Verbal, Non-verbal, Written and Visual communications among the students.

Objectives:

1. To identify areas of deficiency in communication and enhance proficiency.
2. To improve the main purposes of communication such as building relationships, learning, finding inspiration, promoting oneself, and socializing.
3. Improving active and relatable communication.
4. To built up and improve team communication.

Introduction:

An effective communication means to convey information through speech, writing, or other behaviour. Communication is nothing but transmission of information. For the effective reflection of one's information a person should built up all the forms of communication. Considering the need of hour we arranged few lectures to improve communication skills among students especially students of business administration.

1. Communication Skills
