7. Certification:

E-Certificates shall be awarded by GTT to the students on successful completion of the training and clearing of the assessment held post completion of the training program.

8. Limitations and Warranties :

Both parties agree that it would be their endeavour to prevent any liability arising out of default or non-compliance of the MOU terms by the other party.

9. Termination:

- a. Both parties can terminate the MOU with a prior written thirty (30) day notice on default of terms of non-adherence to any condition or responsibilities by the other party as outlined in this MOU in case such default is not rectified within such 30 days.
- b. Both parties also agree that it would be their professional endeavour that despite any termination of the MOU, progress would continue, without any prejudice to the on-going Training Programs, which would be without any hindrance and would be progressed for completion.

10. Entirety & Amendment:

This MOU contains the entire understanding between the Parties in relation to the Training Program. If during the operation of the MOU, circumstances may rise which call for alteration / modification to this MOU, such alteration / modification shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing. Such changes will be formalized in writing as an 'Addendum' to this MOU. Any changes/amendments to this MOU not in conformance to this section shall be deemed to be void-ab-initio.

11. Intellectual Proprietary Rights:

All intellectual or proprietary property and information, supplied or developed by either Party shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of the Party who supplied or developed same. Upon termination of this MOU and upon written request, the Party in receipt of the requesting Party's intellectual or proprietary property and/or information pursuant to this MOU shall return such information to the requesting Party.

12. Confidential Information:

- a. Both parties undertake to each other to keep confidential all information (written or oral) concerning the data and affairs of the other, which has been obtained or received during the course(s) of performance hereunder, save that which is inconsequential or obvious;
- b. Already in its possession other than as a result of a breach of this clause; or in the hands of the public other than as a result of a breach of this clause.
- c. In the event of any of the parties becoming legally compelled to disclose any confidential information, such party shall give sufficient notice to the other party so as to enable the other party to seek a timely protective order or any other appropriate relief. If such an order or other relief cannot be obtained, the party being required to make such a disclosure shall make the disclosure of the Confidential Information only to the extent that is legally required of it and no further.
- d. Both parties agree not to deal directly or enter into any business agreement with any of the partners or associates or customers of either party during the term of the agreement and also after the agreement have been terminated, not earlier than two years from the date of termination.

13. Force Majeure:

- a. Neither party to this MOU shall be liable for any failure or delay on its part in performing any of its obligations under this MOU, if such failure or delay shall be result of or arising out of Force Majeure conditions and, provided that the party claiming Force Majeure shall use its best efforts to avoid or remove such cause of non-performance and shall fulfil and continue performance hereunder with the utmost dispatch whenever and to the extent such cause or causes are removed.

- b. Any extraordinary event, which cannot be controlled by the parties, shall for the purpose of this MOU be considered as a Force Majeure event. Such events include acts of God, acts or omissions of any Government or agency thereof, compliance with rules, regulations or order of any Government Authority. Provided however, if either party claims that existence of any of the aforesaid conditions is delaying or disabling the performance by said party of its obligations under this MOU, such party shall give immediate notice to the other party of the existence of such conditions whose existence are claimed to delay or disable the performance of obligations as aforesaid.

14. Non-Solicitation:

The College agrees that during the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) years after the termination or expiry thereof, College shall not, directly or indirectly, employ, contract, solicit, hire or otherwise utilize the services of an existing employee of GTT
