STAFF WELFARE POLICY FOR TEACHING AND NON-TEACHING STAFF

Purpose

Our society exists for the purpose of maximizing the "Welfare of the Masses". In accordance with this motto, every effort and initiative has been taken to develop welfare schemes for the betterment of our stakeholders, particularly students, parents, teachers, and the society as awhole. These schemes are intended to invoke awareness among students and teachers with regard to social accountability and social responsibility.

Objectives

- To boost morale and make a loyal, happy group of workers in the organization.
- To improve the organization's image in the minds of its workers.
- To make it possible for workers to live comfortably and cheerfully.
- To increase worker efficiency.
- To promote the organization's charitable and caring initiatives.
- To develop a favorable attitude toward the job and management.
- To increase employee satisfaction with the organization and to improve human relations.

Welfare Measures

Employee Provident Fund: All teaching and non-teaching workers must be provided with EPF benefits. Each month, the set amount will be deducted from the employee's pay and deposited with a management contribution to the employee's PF Account. For further information, the employee may contact the institution's accountant or administrative personnel.

Reimbursement of participation fees: It is strongly recommended that faculty members should participate in a variety of FDPs, Workshops, Seminars, and Conferences in order to keep their knowledge and skills current, get exposure to the outside world, and network with other professionals in their field. The college is providing reimbursement of Registration fees for conferences, workshops and seminars, to the faculty.

Advance salary: Staff members can ask for an advance salary in case of an emergency. Whenan application from a staff member is received, it is sent to the management, decision is made right away, and the institute pays advance salary. This amount is equal to one-month salary. Whereas, in certain cases considering requirement of employee, amount of Rs 50,000 is also given in exceptional cases. This advance is free of interest and deducted from salary considering amount of advance and repaying capacity of the employee.

Home loan and Personal loan: The College provides salary slips for home loan and Personal loan of employee as well as essential documentary proofs of their service to the bank.

Health Insurance Policy: The Institution provided a health insurance policy for all teaching andNonteaching staffs.

Other benefits:

- The college allows teaching staff members for completing Ph.D program and related research work during service with the college and gives requisite NOC's.
- Performance appraisal system is implemented for the benefit of staff members.

Procedure of Applying for the Scheme & Approval

To avail the above staff welfare schemes, employee shall follow the procedure and apply through proper channel. The higher authority Principal/ Director shall recommend to the Management regarding the merit and eligibility of the case.

The institution has Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non-teaching staff

- ➤ A good Performance Appraisal System is efficiently followed by the college through a well-developed mechanism
- ➤ Performance Based Assessment System (PBAS): The PBAS is monitored by the IQAC and management team. For up- gradation and promotions, the teachers submit the form to the head of the department who after evaluating forwards it to the IQAC. The IQAC of the college assesses and validates the report and gives it to the Principal.
- Form end reports: Every teacher has to report the activities academic, nonacademic and research in the report that is acknowledged by the principal of the college and is referred for the promotion. The management also takes cognizance of these reports while giving increments in the salary.
- ➤ Through feedback and its analysis: college collects feedbacks from all its stakeholders. The analysis of the feedback helps in taking necessary action and also in improvisation of the performance of the teachers.
